Park Authority Recreates Drive-In Movies of The Past

Starlight Cinema Offers Free Drive-In Movies

The drive-in movie theater was once an icon of American social life. Millions of avid movie-goers were entertained by films shown on the original big screen, outdoors and from the comfort of their cars. Now, there is Starlight Cinema.

The Fairfax County Park Authority is reviving the fun of drive-in movies for a new generation. Come to Starlight Cinema and relive the old-fashioned enjoyment of the drive-in theater during the entire month of August. Starlight Cinema presents a movie every Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Your evening will begin with an outdoor pre-movie program – music, food and children's activities. Then, at dark, the movies will start. Admission is free and the event is appropriate for the entire family.

This summer the series will feature the following films:

August 4: SUPERMAN RETURNS
August 11: HAPPY FEET
August 18: NIGHT at the MUSEUM
August 25: OVER the HEDGE

(We apologize for any inconvenience caused by listing the incorrect dates in the original release.)
